

St Lawrence Jewry August 2019

Newsletter

St Lawrence Jewry is the church on Guildhall Yard, dedicated to bringing the light of Christ to the City of London.

Dear Friends,

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

(Matthew 11:28 NIV UK)

What do you do when you feel down, weary and/or burdened?

Services each week

Services for this month are suspended, as usual in August. Services will resume from Wednesday 4th September 2019.

The Elim Full Gospel Chinese Church fellowship meeting will continue every Wednesday from 12:15 to 1:15pm except on the 7th and 14th to give way to our Summer Music Festival. Everyone is welcome to join this meeting.

Music

There is no escape with Brexit it seems. From television to radio, from newspaper to social media, all we hear is about Brexit. This year's Summer Music Festival also highlight that theme. Thanks to the creative thinking of Stuart Whatton, who will curate the festival for the second time. The festival is shorter this time, only 2 weeks, from Monday 5th to Friday 16th August 2019. Although shorter, it's full pack with different artists. We are also fortunate to have the support of the Musicians Company with their Yeomen Young Artists performing on Tuesday 6th and Friday 16th August. We would like to thank all the volunteers who will be helping us this year and The Friends of the City Churches for their continued support. For full details of Summer Music Festival, please visit our webpage Summer Music Festival 2019. You can also get a copy of the programme in our vestibule.

Popchoir finished with their summer term on Wednesday 24th July. Their autumn term will begin on Wednesday 18th September. To know more about the choir and on how to join, please visit their website <https://popchoir.com/>.

Wedding

Please include in your prayers Frederick Alden and Natasha Stephenson as they prepare for their wedding on Saturday 31st August at 2pm.
